The "Jewish Scout Adventure Trails" is an invitation to play, to discover, to surpass oneself: to sleep under a tent, to walk in the forest, to cook on a wood fire, to build a table, to sing along and dance around a campfire, to light the Chanukah candles among the elderly people in your community, meet scouts from other countries, prepare and live a Shabbat at the summer camp, develop your artistic talents ...

These are just some of the many adventures you'll live with Scouts.

In three or four years, the Jewish Scout Trail will accompany you in your discoveries and your learning, with three stages of progression, fourteen proficiency badges and five senior badges (reserved for enthusiasts).

To advance on your own trail, trust the leaders who wear the badge corresponding to the domain that you wish to discover.

The Scout Law

As scouts, we want to:

- Be true
- Listen to and respect others
- Be aware and help those around us
- Make our best possible choices and commit ourselves
- Protect nature and respect life
- Confront difficulties with confidence
- Enjoy everything beautiful

This Law connects us with all Scouts worldwide...

... As Tsofim Yehudim (Jewish Scouts in Hebrew), we want to better understand what means for us in our daily life: Zachor, Memory — Mishpara, Family — Har Sinai, Mount Sinai, Covenant — Ivrit, Hebrew — Israel.

My First Scout Commitment

During the first camp weekend, you will receive your Clan Shoulder Knots.

"I want to make my commitment to my Tribe and my Clan, and do my best to live by the Scout Law. I ask you all to help me."

The Scout Promise

After one or two years of life with Scouts.

- "With your help, I promise to do my best to:
- Deepen the sense of our Scout Law
- Develop the spiritual values of my life
- Commit myself in each community where I live"

I made my Scout Promise during this camp:
